BLEND CLASSIC AND CONTEMPORARY WITH A TOUCH OF ROMANCE

According to Berry, a white kitchen is classic and timeless. She suggests juxtaposing white cabinetry and countertops with polished nickel hardware and plumbing. Add a touch of stained walnut accents or a pop of color in the backsplash for the perfect finishing touch.

CLEAN AND CLASSIC

“A trend we are seeing everywhere is the white kitchen. Crisp, clean, light and airy, a white kitchen feels rejuvenating and fresh.”

—WENDY BERRY, PRINCIPAL DESIGNER AND OWNER, W DESIGN

TWO BEAUTIES

“Contrasting the rugged against the refined is a sophisticated way of bringing the outside inside. I believe the organic textures of earth connect us to our natural environment. Something in this juxtaposition speaks not only to our esthetic sense but also to what is deep within us.”

—LISA KAHN, LEAD DESIGNER AND CEO, LISA KAHN DESIGNS

The natural grass cloth wallcovering and Roman shades contrast with detailed upholstery and the polished natural quartzite, bringing in warmth and texture with subtle grace.
